

I would like to request the FCC grant ShortWave Listener Stations (SWL) in the US the same degree of protection afforded the amateur radio community by reducing the amount of stray RF energy from the operation of the "Home Plug" technology devices by at least 30db (or more) in the SWL (Broadcast) frequencies between 2Mhz and 30Mhz.